

Count me in as one who would sincerely hope that the CapTel becomes a standard relay option.

I have a progressive high frequency hearing loss and will probably need to use something in the next couple years.

The president of our local ALDA group field tested the CapTel and raved about it. It just sounds so exciting and efficient.

I really hope you go through with it and make it available to HOH and deaf telephone users as soon as possible!

Thank you.